○ Weekly Summary

This week we reached out to Monica with the questions we prepared for the INDD students and reviewed her feedback. We adjusted our questions and are planning to schedule our student interviews.

○ Past week accomplishments

- Kyle Thompson: This week, I reviewed the questions we presented to Monica and have spent more time looking at maximizing the information we can get from our interviews.
- Chin-yen Liang: I reviewed the questions monica had sent over and arranged time for interviews with INDD students.
- MohamedElbashir Eltigani: This week, I worked on arranging meetings with the advisor and Monica and getting updates from Monica; I went through the feedback we received from Monica on how to conduct the interviews.
- Mark Sandstrom: This week, I continued researching communication with designers and reviewed Monica's feedback on our already-created questions.
